Welcome new DeWitt employee,

Thank you for choosing to work for a business in DeWitt! On behalf of the DeWitt Chamber and Development Company (DCDC), I would like to officially welcome you to this great community.

The DCDC is a business organization that recognizes that the success of our community is dependent on the support of those that live, work and visit DeWitt. With that in mind, we have created a Welcome to DeWitt Kit for new employees. You will find an abundance of useful information about the community; everything from important contacts, how to get involved and what businesses you can find in DeWitt. Many of our DCDC members have contributed to the enclosed "Business Showcase" by providing a brochure, coupon or promotional item for you.

We encourage you to Look Local First! Take a walk on the Paul Skeffington trails, take in a movie at the Operahouse Theatre, open a bank account, or enjoy a meal, just to mention a few.

Please remember, if you have questions, need a referral or just want to say hello, the staff at the DCDC is here to be a resource for you!

Again, thank you for choosing to work for a DeWitt business!

A Vibrant Community

Opportunities For All Ages

With its hometown values and progressive vision, DeWitt welcomes everyone, whether they are new to the community or well-known and deep-rooted in its history.

Enterprising traditions and a unique heritage were just the start of this bustling town established almost 180 years ago. Since then, DeWitt has welcomed thousands of families who have taken pride in the community and contributed to its vigorous growth.

DeWitt is home to many who work in the metropolitan area, yet offers so much more that it could never be called a mere bedroom community. DeWitt is vibrant and thriving and home to more than 5,300 people who choose to live, work and play here. Community festivals, expansive recreational activities, prosperous industries, and a wide variety of local shops and restaurants provide opportunities for all ages.

DeWitt ranks 14th out of the best Iowa communities to live in, according to the 2015 Niche Rankings.

At the DeWitt Chamber & Development Company (DCDC), we tend to agree. We want to spread the good news about DeWitt to those who already live here and to those who may choose to make it their home.

Excellence in Education

A Community Committed to Learning

DeWitt provides outstanding educational opportunities for all ages, from preschoolers to adults. As a community, we know education comes from many places and is a lifelong journey of learning through new experiences.

Central Community School District provides nearly 1,500 DeWitt, Grand Mound, Low Moor, and Welton students with a rigorous, innovative education. St. Joseph Catholic School, with its 150-year history, offers the freedom to share faith in the context of academics.

Cutting-edge teaching practices, 1:1 computer availability, college credit classes, and award-winning academic and extracurricular programs have caused standardized assessment scores to rise well above national averages. Opportunities for student success are further enhanced by partnerships between the schools and local businesses.

Central's graduation rate stands at a remarkable 99 percent, and 90 percent of graduates further their education. More than 60 post-secondary institutions exist within a 90-mile radius of DeWitt.

Opportunities for educational advancement exist beyond school buildings, too. Within 20 minutes of DeWitt are seven Eastern Iowa Community College sites offering continuing education opportunities and career preparation for area adults. # Manufacturing

Steady Success on the South Side

A child's Little Tikes® basketball set. A Ragbrai bike tag. Glass on the NYC Freedom Tower. What do all these things have in common? They are just a few of the thousands of products manufactured here in DeWitt.

Manufacturers. The 15 silent neighbors who stand with influence on the south end of town. Standing on local, international and global reputations for championing innovative products with worldwide impact.

Sustaining a thriving manufacturing community is important to the strength of DeWitt's local economy. The nearly 1,000 people who work in the industrial park buy goods and services, rent or buy homes, and enjoy recreational amenities right here in DeWitt.

Industrial and commercial property taxes are revenues for the City and help to fund services such as the police and fire departments, library, community center and trail systems - as well as infrastructure and street projects.

These giants of vitality were drawn to DeWitt because of the loyalty of the local labor market, the close proximity to lines of transportation, major markets and raw materials, the available space for future growth, and the pro-business tax climate.

Active Volunteers

Engaged Citizens Committed to Service

Volunteers. Well-known community champions - seen day-to-day leading committee meetings, serving at sloppy joe dinners and helping in the schools. The quiet heroes - who stuff envelopes at home, drive the elderly to the store, and make phone calls to arrange meals for shut-ins. They strengthen our community. They connect people together. They influence our way of life.

One of the earliest volunteer organizations in DeWitt helped women gain the right to vote. Since then, volunteer clubs have built a hospital, saved the opera house, honored our veterans and expanded our school facilities. They continue to develop and mentor our children, fight fires, grow our churches, and hold the hands of the terminally ill.

Today, there are at least sixty-one volunteer organizations in DeWitt. Organizations which were developed over time to fulfill the needs of our community. From faith-based organizations and social groups, to educational outreach and civic groups - there is a variety of appeal - for youth, working adults and retirees.

Time is one of the greatest gifts of a volunteer.

In 2014, Iowa was rated 2nd in volunteering with Iowans reported giving 93.7 million hours of their time to community service.

However, the real value of volunteering comes from sharing life experiences, learning new skills, connecting with community members across generations, and furthering a meaningful cause.

Shopping & Dining

Small Town Service, Big City Variety

DeWitt retailers and restaurants present an extensive menu ranging from office supplies to antiques and take-out fajitas to lasagna. An appealing blend of small-town, knowledgeable service and a unique variety of choice, the vibrant Downtown District (6th Ave) and the Old Lincoln Highway District (11th St), present big-city retail and restaurant options. Fortunately, it's just around the corner.

A regular shopping trip to a larger city is at minimum 50-miles round-trip from DeWitt. Based on the 2015 government business mileage rate at 57.5 cents per mile, the trip alone will cost $28.75. By changing course and being aware of how DeWitt's stores and restaurants cater to most daily needs, dollars can be redirected to preserving our progressive and thriving community.

Buying from local retail stores and restaurants improves a community by helping a local store owner put food on the table and pay a mortgage versus helping a CEO buy a third vacation home. Studies show independent retailers return more than three times as much money per dollar of sales to the local economy than big box competitors.

Keeping dollars in DeWitt is easy with the purchase of Chamber Bucks, a local currency which works like a check at over 200 locations in town and is great for

Professional Services

Look Local First for Your Professional Service Needs

Experienced professionals. Genuine service. Regional influence. Rooted in DeWitt are nearly 50 professional service companies who provide us with the advantage of their expertise every day.

An impressive list of local service professions ranges from plumbers, accountants, bankers and printers, to mechanics, electricians, hair stylists and insurance agents. Countless other professional services populate the DeWitt landscape, which means you have many options to look local first. Solutions are right around the corner.

There is a wide selection of financial institutions who provide reputable financial services for every financial stage in life; including, accounting, trust, investment, loans, tax, business and personal banking.

Custom Art and Signs offers 27 years of experience in custom design work to put on vehicles, buildings and t-shirts. Similarly, Hansen Monuments and DeWitt Memorial Company pride themselves in experience, but it's the genuine connection with their clients which matters most. DeWitt is a welcoming community for these businesses to grow. While offering services locally, many companies stretch their territory to a large part of

Midwest zip codes. ## At Your Service, Day and Night

Devoted, highly-skilled and passionate leaders. Firefighters, police officers, elected city officials and councilmembers. Working to serve, protect and lead the city of DeWitt with pride, professionalism and partnership.

Weaved throughout these civil servants is family tradition and a calling to serve. DeWitt's 30-person volunteer fire department responds at any hour. They commit to generous hours of training for certifications, enhancing skill, competency, and strengthening the department. Additional annual training, including live fire training, adds an average of 45 hours each year, doubling the hours required by the state of Iowa. Champions of hard work and bravery.

The resolute mission of the DeWitt Police Department – to serve and protect. Pledged by eleven sworn in Police Officers and nine volunteer Police Reserve Officers. Partners in the safety of our community - illustrated through proactive programming, including an on-campus School Resource Officer at the Central DeWitt Community School District, enhancing a safe and healthy school environment. Accredited by CALEA - the gold standard for public safety, awarded based on merits such as professionalism, consistency, objectivity, accountability, knowledge and collaboration. Valuable qualities, granting a peace of mind for the DeWitt community.

City councilmembers, the mayor and administrative staff – visionary leaders of the City of DeWitt.
