

DeWitt Chamber & Development Company Newsletter

February 2019

Letter from the Executive Director,

As part of the Iowa Chamber of Commerce Executive's (ICCE) Winter Conference last week, I participated in meetings with state leadership regarding business growth in Iowa. Conversations were focused on economic development, specifically with a rural perspective; funding for Future Ready Iowa as a Workforce Development tool; and how to better support our smaller communities and businesses.

It was great to hear the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses

Director site our local business, Sandry Fire, as a leading success story for their nationwide small business development program. Check out Mary Sandry's testimonial of the program she wrote for our Dewitt Delivers! blog here. The program is currently taking applications for the next class in Iowa.

There was also a great break out session on Turning "To Do" into "Done". I have to say, I've done a pretty good job of managing the to do list this week! One of the biggest (and oldest) things on that list is the Community Profile & Member Directory. I've been the hold up on that publication for the last few months. There always seems something else that takes priority or a meeting that is more immediate. That's stopping now. Well, more specifically this week. The final draft of the content will be sent to our amazing and patient publication partner this week. The final editing will be done in the coming few weeks and then printed and mailed to all of you. It's going to be a great publication! I have to be honest, I can't wait to say "DONE!" on that item on the to do list!

Think Spring Everyone. We know it's coming!

Angla Breingan

WELCOME KENZIE ROSENBOOM!

In her position as our new intern, Mackenzie (Kenzie), will provide us with an fresh and outside perspective on all we do, give us key details and feedback on everything going on in and outside the community, and help us with everyday tasks that go on within the DCDC. Kenzie is a Senior at Central DeWitt High School.
After high school, she plans to attend Iowa
Central Community College to get her Associates of Arts in Business.

2019 "eat Lunch & Learn something" Talent in the Workplace

Our first "eat Lunch & Learn something" of 2019 drew a packed house! Jeremy Tatman, Franchised Restaurant Operator of the Davenport Chick-fil-A, spoke on how to motivate and cultivate great talent in the workplace! Everyone enjoyed lunch catered by Chik-fil-A while hearing tips on how to find great employees and how to keep them with our company longer! Thank you to all who joined us!

NEW! Visitor's Guide

The DCDC is excited to share that the new and improved DeWitt Visitor's Guide is printed and ready to be shared with DeWitt businesses! These brochures give DeWitt's visitors a glimpse of the restaurants, shops, services and things to do for those that are here for a day. DCDC Staff will be delivering the brochures over the coming weeks. If you'd like yours right away or ever need more for your lobby, give Molly a call and she'll get them to you ASAP.

Still to come is the Community Profile and Member Directory which will include much more of what DeWitt has to offer and a complete list of DCDC Member Businesses! This publication will be mailed to all businesses and residents in the Central DeWitt School District and be available to those visiting DeWitt as well as those who are looking to relocate to DeWitt! Our goal is to continue to illustrate how DeWitt Delivers!

A Sunny Outlook for Business!

In January of 2018, my husband Larry and I purchased Sun Central Tanning Salon in DeWitt. At that time we really didn't know much about the tanning industry but we were excited to be a part of a small business venture in DeWitt...
