DCDC Monthly

November 2015

Hello DCDC members!

I am excited to have begun my role as the Executive Director of the DeWitt Chamber and Development Company.

As a nearly lifelong DeWitt resident, and most recently the Director of the DeWitt Hospital Foundation, I have had the pleasure of meeting or working with many of you. For those of you I have not yet met; I'm looking forward to the opportunity to learn more about you, your business and how we can work together.

It was my time with DavenportOne (now the Quad Cities Chamber) that first showed me the impact a member business organization can have on the development of a community. It was an experience that shaped my professional career, as well as my personal priorities as a community volunteer.

I believe that a vision of "what could be" can shape a community. I also believe that vision is not for a single person to choose; rather it is developed by a team that commits to working together to accomplish their part. That community vision is comprised of many aspects - the business community, employees, government entities, residents, and visitors.

The DCDC is a growing organization with a vibrant membership, dedicated volunteers, and strong relationships with our government partners. I am excited to lead the DCDC in its next steps forward, helping to shape the future of DeWitt - a community I am proud to call home.

Whether you are a business leader, employee, or resident; I welcome your thoughts and efforts on the DCDC and its mission to support existing businesses, attract new businesses and assist in enhancing the quality of life for our community. Give me a call at (563) 659-8500 or email me at director@dewittiowa.org. I look forward to our visit!

Sincerely,

Autumn Fest 2015

Autumn Fest is an annual event put on by the DCDC with the help of our sponsors, volunteers and committee members! It is our "Community Thank You" to all those that support DeWitt and its businesses. The night has a variety of activities and attractions: children's games/activities, live music, food vendors, a classic car show and emergency vehicle display, just to name a few.

Unfortunately, Autumn Fest was canceled due to inclement weather. Luckily, we were able to reschedule the event to October 2nd, just two weeks later. Thank you to all those that were able to support the event through volunteering, sponsoring or attending the festivities!

MFGDAY15

Thanks to the wonderful support of our members and other local businesses, our first National MFGDAY15 on October 9th was a success! Local 7-12th grade students participated in one of over 2,500 Manufacturing Day events occurring across the nation (www.mfgday.com). Businesses filled the Central DeWitt High School gym, atrium, and front walkway for a STEM Fest engaging students in hands-on activities highlighting high-skill and high-paying jobs in our community. In addition to the STEM Fest, six speakers made presentations related to their careers in manufacturing and innovations happening at their businesses. Adam Gravert from Guardian Industries gave an impactful presentation discussing his career path that began in the halls of Central DeWitt! Other presenters included Genesis Systems Group, Highway Equipment Company, Rockwell Collins and CIRAS. The event was also featured in the SE Iowa STEM Hub Newsletter.

A special thank you to all businesses that participated in the STEM Fest:

Career Exploration Opportunities Needed

Mr. Grady Gallagher, Central DeWitt High School business teacher, has announced that his Employment Strategies class will be job shadowing at local businesses in November. The students in his class have completed a career interest survey to identify jobs that they would like to explore for future careers. From these survey results, opportunities have been identified for students to participate in a short job shadow on November 17th from 8:30-11:30. Please contact me if you are interested in providing career exploration opportunities for our local students, Jenny McGarry becoordinator@dewittiowa.org.

March – Agriculture

April -- Recreation

May – Civil Servants (fire, police, city gov't)

June -- Attractions

DeWitt Delivers Manufacturing

OCTOBER is National Manufacturing Month

Steady Success on the South Side

A child's Little "Three" basketball set. A Eagles like tag. Glass on the NYC Freedom Tower. What do all these things have in common? They are just a few of the thousands of products manufactured here in DeWitt.

Manufacturers. The 15 about neighbors who stand with influence on the south end of town. Standing on local, international and global reputations for championing innovative products with world-wide impact.

and enjoy recreational amenities right here in DeWitt.

Industrial and commercial property taxes are revenues for the City and help to fund services such as the police and fire departments, library, community center and trail systems – as well as infrastructure and street projects.

These giants of vitality were drawn to DeWitt because of the loyalty of the local labor market, the close proximity to lines of transportation, major markets and raw materials, the available space for future growth, and the pro-business tax climate.

In 2014, Iowa ranked 9th in the United States for lowest cost of doing business. In addition, DeWitt encourages growth by extending a Tax Increment Financing Program for companies adding value to their property.

A strong local labor market, outstanding location and pro-business tax climate – this is how DeWitt Delivers Manufacturing!

DeWitt is home to 15 manufacturers that employ nearly 1,000 people.

Sustaining a thriving manufacturing community is important to the strength of DeWitt's local economy. The nearly 1,000 people who work in the industrial park buy goods and services, rent or buy homes.

Each month throughout the year, the DCDC is highlighting various aspects of the DeWitt community in a variety of ways. You will see monthly articles and weekly Did you know? facts in The Observer, a new DeWitt Delivers community blog, and posts on social media.

Get Lost in DeWitt...

Leave a reply

A clear, brisk night and Lincoln Park is drenched with pumpkins, hay bales, and all things autumn. You can grab a sweet or savory crepe, barbeque pork chop, or pulled pork sandwich while listening to the band Soul Storm playing in the band shell. My daughter and all her friends dash for the bounce houses, games, pedal tractor pull, or the "green park" where they run into their school friends and converse their playtime and socializing. The first weekend in October was Autumn Fest in DeWitt and because autumn is the "most wonderful time of the year" for me, I was glad it had been rescheduled from the cold and rainy date weeks earlier. The yearly event is just one of the many ways to "get lost" in the happiness of the community and the laughter with friends and family.

October in DeWitt is also a perfect time to get out and enjoy the colors. If you're an outdoor person, I know you can appreciate DeWitt as much as I do. From Springbrook Country Club to Westbrook and Lincoln Park, to all the little streets in between...the trees are just beginning their transformations!

In wanting to find the perfect tree for this post I pulled into Westbrook early one morning planning to jump out and take a quick photo of a tree near the beginning of the Paul Skeffington Trail. It was beautiful...but wait, what's that around the corner? And over the bridge, and down the trail...I found myself walking the entire length of Westbrook taking pictures around every turn. It was dewy and foggy but the sun was just beginning to shine through in hidden spots. I hadn't grabbed my phone or car keys, all I had were my walking shoes and camera and it was glorious. Of course I met familiar faces along the way, as this is DeWitt, and most greeted me with a friendly "Whatcha up to?" in seeing the camera on my shoulder, and then in turn, discussing what a gorgeous morning it was. And that, my friends, is what I love about DeWitt. By the time I got back to my car I had missed two calls from work and had forgotten about a repairman that was on his way to the house to fix our garage door. But I was happy I had gotten "lost in DeWitt" for just an hour. I hope you'll notice the autumn beauty on your way to work, school or maybe on your morning run or evening walk. Here was my favorite photo from my Westbrook morning!

Member Spotlight: Iowa Mutual Insurance Company

The Iowa Assessment Mutual Fire Insurance Association opened for business more than a century ago. Our first customers were the farmers who lived in and around our DeWitt, Iowa, office. In 1920 the name was changed to Iowa Mutual Insurance Company and provided insurance coverage for all types of property exposures. In 1926 Iowa Mutual Casualty Company was formed, responding to the need to provide liability coverages.

Early in the forties the Iowa Mutual Companies began operations outside of Iowa. Currently Iowa Mutual is licensed in eleven states, actively writing in Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska.

In 1946 the two companies were combined to form a multi-line insurer, the Iowa Mutual Insurance Company. Late in the fifties, Iowa Mutual was one of the first companies to offer packaged coverage. The first package, the Commercial Coverall, was soon followed by the Personal Insurance Package and the Farmpac.

In late 2003, Iowa Mutual affiliated with Motorists Mutual Insurance Company in Columbus, Ohio, to become a member of The Motorists Insurance Group. Since the affiliation, Iowa Mutual has grown from $41 million in direct written premiums to almost $89 million at the end of 2014. Embracing change and surviving difficulties, Iowa Mutual has existed for over 100 years.

Iowa Mutual is a trusted and responsive insurance carrier in the independent agency system.

We sum it all up in one word — Service.

Security through growth and profitability

Excellence in the products we offer

Regard for our policyholders, agents and employees

Vision plus action

Integrity in all aspects of our business

Community involvement

Exceptional service

Through our independent agents, we offer personal and commercial insurance products, risk management services, and life insurance. Iowa Mutual also offers top-notch claims service when our customers need us most.

Each company in The Motorists Insurance Group is guided by a singular vision: to be a regionally focused, innovative, profitable, customer-oriented insurance enterprise.
